

District Governor Visits Rotary

County Sing Convention Oct. 14-15

The fall meeting of the Hempstead County Singing Convention will be held Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 14-15 at Oak Grove Methodist Church. The Saturday meeting opens at 7:30 p.m.; Sunday at 10 a.m., continuing throughout the day, with dinner on the ground. All are invited.

The church is six miles southeast of Hope. Take Highway 4 to junction with Highway 32, follow 32 to Shover Springs, and signs announce the church site three-quarters of a mile beyond Shover, according to Harold Duke, president, Arthur Stretch, vice-president, and Mrs. Arthur Stretch, secretary-treasurer.

"Why are you a Rotarian?" asked District Governor Omer Stanfield, of Dardanelle, at the Hope Rotary Club meeting on Friday, Oct. 6, at the Town and Country. He stressed the admonition by Rotary International President Luther Hodges to "make your Rotary membership effective." He also quoted former R. I. President Richard Evans by saying, "Do something somewhere for somebody."

The retired Presbyterian minister who is now Mayor of Dardanelle told the Rotarians they should make their businesses better by practicing Rotary principles because "he profits most who serves best."

Jim Pruden, United Fund drive chairman, urged the club members to take part in the current U.F. drive. Rotarian L. T. Lawrence inducted Syd McMath into the club. John Blundell of Texarkana was a visiting Rotarian. Special guests were members of the homecoming royalty, Queen Gail Hartsfield, and Maids, Twila Hunt, Penny Burke, Jeanne Pruden, Ellen Turner, Donna Cole, Carol Anthony, Debbie Watson, Darla James, and Betty Gaines.

Charter Bus Overtakes in Rain, 32 Hurt

WYNNE, Ark. (AP)—A chartered bus overturned on Arkansas 39 in Cross County Sunday, injuring 32 of its 35 passengers. Authorities said the accident occurred during a heavy rainstorm south of Fairbault, about 15 miles west of here. They said the bus apparently skidded on a slick spot on the highway.

Bombers Hit 'Forbidden' Targets

SAIGON (AP)—U.S. Navy fighter-bombers struck a North Vietnamese MIG airfield near Haiphong Sunday, the sixth installation hit in five straight days of raids on targets once ruled by the Pentagon as out of bounds for U.S. warplanes. The strike that dug wide craters into the French-built jet strip at Cat Bi left untouched only two bases in the North capable of launching MIG interceptors.

In the ground war, an American platoon fought out of a surrounded position in rain-swept jungles and Communist mortar-men poured fire on the major Army-Navy base in the Mekong Delta.

Nearby in the delta, a 50-year-old Buddhist nun burned herself to death, a Saigon newspaper said, the second suicide by fire in a week during the drive by militant Buddhists to force the government to abandon a charter recognizing a moderate faction in the church. The Cat Bi strike damaged a Soviet built liaison plane, but the U.S. Command said the carrier-based jets found no MIGs on the ground as they flew in "virtually unopposed."

The raid was part of a maximum U.S. effort to cripple the North before the monsoon rains start this month and cut flying time by as much as 75 per cent. Since Wednesday, U.S. planes have also hit three bridges on supply routes from Red China and two fuel dumps, all previously barred as too sensitive to attack.

The Communist Chinese New China News Agency claimed that 10 U.S. planes were shot down over North Vietnam Saturday. The U.S. Command said three planes were downed and four airmen missing.

COURT UPHOLDS

who led desegregation demonstrations in Birmingham in 1963.

This means Dr. King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and the other ministers can be jailed at once.

Last June the court affirmed by a 5-4 vote the convictions of the eight ministers for holding the Good Friday and Easter Sunday demonstrations in violation of an Alabama court order.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Legal Defense and Educational Fund petitioned the court to reconsider. In July, Justice Potter Stewart, who had written the majority opinion, ordered the five-day jail sentences and $50 fines delayed until the court returned from recess and considered the petition.

It was rejected today in a brief order that gave no explanation.

The court noted that Justice Thurgood Marshall took no part in the case.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court announced today it will decide whether the 1965 federal law that forbids the burning of draft cards is constitutional.

At the same time the court will decide if a draft card burner can be sent to prison for not possessing his card.

The Justice Department had asked the court to hear the case after the U.S. Circuit Court in Boston ruled unanimously that the 1965 law abridges free speech and is therefore unconstitutional.

It is estimated that had handwriting costs American business $70 million a year because of so-called bills, orders, invoices, checks and tickets.

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD DAY CARE CENTER

The New Day Care Center operated by First Assembly of God was visited this week by Katherine Blythe of the Arkansas State Department of Public Welfare. Rev. Willhite, pastor of the church stated that Miss Blythe expressed herself as being well pleased with the new center and its operation.

Pastor Willhite stated further that he was a bit disappointed with the small number enrolled thus far, but felt that this was partly due to some people thinking that the center was being operated for members of First Assembly, only. This, he stated, was never the churches' intention, but that the center was opened for the purpose of providing good care for the children of working mothers at minimal cost, and that a persons church preference was not a factor at all.

CHICAGO GETS

ance of a site committee's proposal to meet in a state with a Democratic governor and a city with a Democratic mayor—but in an area where the Republicans are in resurgence.

National Chairman John M. Bailey predicted Johnson would be renominated unanimously at the four-day extravaganza opening Aug. 25.

In a fight talk today, Bailey summoned the Democrats to back Johnson's Vietnam efforts "to prevent World War III."

The national chairman said while Johnson takes "the only position that makes sense" on Vietnam, most Republicans "are busy trying to win the 1968 election" by criticizing his actions.

In a thinly veiled reference to Democratic dissenters, Bailey told the Democrats: "Let's defend the President of the United States against those of his critics who are utterly unreasonable."

Bailey spoke out in a report prepared for a formal national committee session.

Bailey scoffed at public opinion polls which generally show a majority not satisfied with the way Johnson is handling the war.

Asserting that the President's decisions "will be vindicated by history," the national chairman told the Democrats they must not be stampeded by the polls.

Bailey said Republicans haven't yet had to spell out proposals. He scolded Michigan Gov. George Romney, California Gov. Ronald Reagan, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. Charles H. Percy of Illinois for "trying to dupe us into believing they can do both more or less in Vietnam at the same time."

The Democratic chairman did not mention New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a prospective GOP favorite son who has generally supported Johnson's basic Vietnam policies.

Attlee of Britain Is Dead at 84

LONDON (AP) — The ashes of Clement Attlee, father of the British welfare state, will be placed in Westminster Abbey, burial place of the nation's sovereigns and statesmen.

Attlee, prime minister from 1945 to 1951, died Sunday in a London hospital after a long illness. He was 84.

No date has been scheduled for the cremation but Nov. 3 has been tentatively set for the Westminster Abbey service.

Tributes continued to pour in from all over the world today. India's President Zakir Husain sent a message of condolence to Queen Elizabeth II praising the man under whose administration India received her independence.

The Queen said Attlee "made an enduring place for himself in the history of our country and the Commonwealth. In war and peace he served his sovereigns well."

Prime Minister Harold Wilson, who quit Attlee's Cabinet over a rearment dispute in 1951, called his former leader "one of the greatest men of our generation. He brought a quiet and modest greatness to our public affairs."

President Johnson said Attlee "was a strong defender and champion of democracy and freedom. As a political leader and a creative humanitarian, he earned the admiration and respect of the entire world."

Attlee was first elected to Parliament in 1922 and was leader of the Labor party from 1935 to 1955, the longest tenure in the party's history. In 1940 he became Winston Churchill's deputy prime minister in a wartime coalition Cabinet.

In July 1945, Attlee led Labor to a sweeping election landslide seen as a mandate for domestic reconstruction in war-torn Britain. During his six years in office he instituted national health service and insurance plans, nationalized the steel industry, railways, the Bank of England, the gas industry and public transport.

The Labor party lost to Churchill's Conservatives in 1951. Attlee remained party leader until a stroke forced his retirement four years later.

He was elevated to the House of Lords as the first Earl Attlee, a title now inherited by his 40-year-old son.

How About Snails? They Hit 23 Inches an Hour, Says Boyle

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

The average snail's pace, science has decided, is 23 inches an hour—on a clear day and a fast track.

Nothing brings married people together like the income tax. In 1966, some 39.3 million U.S. couples filed joint returns. Only 2.8 million married people paid their taxes to Uncle Sam separately.

What kind of debris collects behind the desk drawers in business offices? A recent check by cleaners disclosed that 12 per cent had unsent Christmas cards, 10 per cent had shoe polishing gear, 19 per cent had miscellaneous business cards, and nearly 100 per cent had forgotten medicines and personal photos.

How well off is the ordinary Russian after 50 years of communism? According to Eugene Lyons in "Workers' Paradise Lost," a Soviet workman has to pay four months' salary for a washing machine, then wait a year for the machine to be delivered.

Prosperity note: Americans last year bought $122.5 billion worth of life insurance, and the average amount owned per family is now $15,900, double what it was just 10 years ago.

Cheering news: Mortgages seem to run on forever, but they do get finally paid. Among U.S. homeowners, one out of every four currently owns his house free and clear of debt.

Quotable notables: "I look back on my life like a good day's work; it was done and I am satisfied with it. Life is what we make it, always has been, always will be."—Grandma Moses, the artist.

Your wife might be able to make her own beauty preparations. Queen Nefertiti of Egypt designed her own foundation cream. It was a mixture of white lead, chalk powder, honey and perfume. Your wife could do the same thing in her kitchen by using ground-up wallboard or white crayons, boiled sugar syrup, and a dish of your own shaving lotion.

Keeping bakers honest has been a government problem ever since man started eating bread 10,000 years ago. In ancient Persia a baker who adulterated his loaves was flung into his own oven and burned until he was well done, in Turkey offending bakers were simply nailed by the ears to the doorposts of their shops.

Heavenly hazards: Outer space may soon have to hire a traffic cop. The United States alone has sent up more than 500 satellites and space probes, and some 250 are still whizzing around the earth in orbit.

Worth remembering: "In this modern age men who die with their boots on usually have one of them on the accelerator."

4th Downer Costs Denver Loss to Bills

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
Len Dawson, Kansas City's conservative quarterback, was at his ad lib best but Bob Scarpito, Denver's impromptu punter, would have been better off sticking to his script.

Dawson hurled five touchdown passes, touching off the spree with a 77-yarder on a broken play, as the Chiefs bombed Miami 41-0 in the American Football League Sunday.

Scarpito, trying to run from punting position on a fourth down, was swarmed under by Buffalo defenders, giving the Bills possession and setting up Buffalo's 17-16 victory over Denver.

In Sunday's other game, San Diego rallied behind John Hadl for a 31-31 tie against Boston. Saturday night, New York knocked off previously-unbeaten Oakland 27-14.

In the National League, Green Bay whipped Detroit 27-17, Dallas squeezed past Washington 17-14, Philadelphia walloped Atlanta 38-7, Baltimore routed Chicago 24-3, St. Louis topped Minnesota 34-24, New York ripped New Orleans 27-21 and San Francisco nipped Los Angeles 27-24. Saturday night it was Cleveland 21, Pittsburgh 10.

Dawson, the AFL's all-time leading passer, has often been criticized for sticking too firmly to the game plan and not innovating on plays.

But he was unconventional enough for the Chiefs on their first TD, a razzle dazzle maneuver that left the Dolphins stunned for the rest of the day.

"It was an off-tackle play," explained Dawson, who started the move by handing off to Mike Garrett. "But Mike got stopped. I holstered for him to throw me the ball."

Olds Taylor, whose assignment on the play was to block the safety man, wound up with a TD instead. "I saw Mike was in trouble," said Taylor, "so I came back to help out. Then I heard Lenny holtering for the ball, so I just turned around and starting running downfield."

Garrett latered back to Dawson and the quarterback threw for Taylor. "I was going to run with it," he said, "but I saw Taylor downfield so I threw to him. I figured he could make more yardage than I could."

Dawson was right. The play made 77 yards and was the first of five scoring pitches for the veteran quarterback. Over-all, he completed 13 of 23 for 250 yards as the Chiefs buried Miami.

Scarpito, who had pulled off six straight successful runs from punting position, had the string broken but good by the Bills.

Denver was leading 16-10 in the fourth quarter when Scarpito gambled and lost in a fourth and 11 situation. A 15-yard penalty for piling on the poor punter pushed the Bills back to Denver's 44 but six plays later Keith Lincoln barreled in for the tying touchdown and Mike Mercer kicked the decisive extra point.

Hadl brought the Chargers back with a pair of fourth quarter TD passes that tied Boston. Hadl hit Willie Frazier with a four-yard scoring pitch and Lance Alworth on a 24-yarder. He completed 17-of-29 for 249 yards in the game.

Jim Nance and Babe Parilli

had guided the Patriots into the early bulge. Parilli, who completed 17-of-34 for 264 yards, threw for a pair of touchdowns and Nance scored twice, picking up 127 yards on 29 carries.

The Raiders suffered their first setback of the season when New York defeated them 27-14 Saturday night. Emerson Boozer, the league's leading scorer, ran for 98 yards on 18 carries and scored two TDs, running his season's total to eight.

May Be 4th Series in Row for Cardinals

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer
ST. LOUIS (AP) — St. Louis' Bob Gibson has four straight World Series victories, and now the Cardinals are on the threshold of equalling that streak.

They put themselves into position to extend their series record to four straight today by coasting past Boston 6-0 Sunday behind Gibson's five-hit pitching.

The victory gave St. Louis a 3-1 lead in the Series and Gibson a four-game winning streak dating back to 1964 when he was the Series' hero.

In an attempt to force the Series back to Boston, Manager Dick Williams of the Red Sox called on Jim Lonborg, who threw a one-hitter last Thursday to face St. Louis today.

"Carlton is capable of pitching a shutout just like Gibson did," Schoendienst said.

If the Cardinals wrap up the Series today or back in Boston, it'll be the fourth straight time they have won the postseason affair.

The last time they failed in a Series was in 1943 when they lost to the New York Yankees four games to one.

They came back the next year to take their neighbors, the St. Louis Browns, 4-3; they edged the Red Sox 4-3 in 1946 and did the same to the Yankees in 1964.

In looking toward their fourth in a row, the Cardinals have hitting, pitching and precedence in their favor.

Only three teams in history have come back from a 3-1 deficit and won the whole thing—the 1903 Red Sox over Pittsburgh in a nine-game series, the 1925 Pirates against Washington and the 1958 New York Yankees over Milwaukee.

"We have our backs to the wall, but we're not giving up," Williams said after watching Gibson allow only one runner past first base and record his second victory of this Series.

The Red Sox didn't quit Sunday, but they were pitched into retirement by Gibson.

The 31-year-old right-hander was pitching on three days rest for the first time since last year's All-Star game, and he said he became tired in the last two innings.

But the Red Sox couldn't do anything against him. They got harmless singles in the first, fourth, sixth and eighth innings, and then Carl Yastrzemski's meaningless double in the ninth.

"I was more comfortable in the first game; I was more tired in this one," said Gibson, who hurled a six-hit 2-1 victory in the opener last Wednesday.

"I really had to force myself in the eighth and ninth innings and when you force yourself, it's not as easy."

Williams agreed on Gibson's self-appraisal.

"He didn't have as good stuff as he did in the opener," the manager said, "but he's a great pitcher and deserves all the credit in the world. He was throwing strikes and that's the big thing. When he got the 4-0 lead in the first inning, he just made sure we hit the ball."

The Cardinals certainly hit the ball in the first inning, clubbing Jose Santiago for four runs and six hits before Williams replaced him with Gary Bell, who as a starter was rocked for three runs and five hits in the first two innings Saturday.

Lou Brock and Curt Flood singled, and both scored as Roger Maris lashed a double, one out later, Tim McCarver singled home Maris, and after Santiago managed to get another out, singles by Julian Javier and Dal Maxvill brought McCarver around.

"When you have that many runs so early, you can relax a little bit although I don't think to the point where you get careless," commented Gibson.

The Cardinal ace, who was out from July 15 to Sept. 6 with a broken leg, never did get careless. He walked just one man, Reggie Smith, in the seventh but ended the inning by chasing Rico Petrocelli's little check-swinging pop down the first base line.

"It kind of surprised me," the pitcher explained. "I realized it was going to stay up, and I ran over and got it."

Bad Breaks Plague Cats From Start

By RALPH ROUNTON
Star Sports Writer

Looking from the spectator's viewpoint, it seems easy to point out several likenesses in the football situations of the Hope Bobcats and the Arkansas Razorbacks.

Both the Porkers and our own Bobcats were expected to come through with fine seasons, to be led by the performances of several seniors and a few 'stars on the horizon'.

In our local situation, Head Bobcat Coach Freddie Glaze could very easily write a best-seller this winter describing how bad breaks, piled one atop the other, got on a coach's nerves.

Coach Glaze has been forced to move some boys around to different positions, as injuries and the present 2-4 record have been disappointing to the Bobcat boosters who follow the team every game. Still, as of late that 110 percent effort has been exerted by the Cats against the toughest opponents on the schedule, and in time we could jell into a real speller in the conference race.

This week Hope travels to Camden Fairview to take on the vastly improved Cardinals. Fairview at present has lost but one ball game, a 14-13 defeat to Snackover, and the Redbirds always give a good effort against the Bobcats.

Taking into mind the happenings around the University of Arkansas, Frank Broyles most probably could compose a best-seller at the end of the season concerning "How to lose a close ball game". The Razorbacks broke a three-game losing run last Saturday, but those losses came by the scores of 21-16, 7-6, and 14-12. The last two came in September against a couple of Oklahoma squads, Tulsa's Hurricanes and the Cowpokes of Oklahoma State. Arkansas was picked second in the Southwest Conference for 1967, with a Top Ten ranking and a 9-1 record on the year. After falling to a pair of non-conference foes, the Hogs opened their SWC slate with a 26-0 shellacking of TCU.

There is still the possibility of the Southwest championship and the Cotton Bowl berth, but the U of A will have to improve to a greater degree with each week's game. This Saturday the Porkers travel out-of-state for the first time this year, flying to Waco to fight the Baylor Bears. The Baptists are a darkhorse in the Southwest Conference race, but the Hogs are remembering October 8, 1966, when the men in green topped the Big Red 7-0 on a dreary day in Fayetteville.

It appears that this writer needs some lessons on predicting from Major Amos B. Hoople, the original Wizard of Odds. Last week this column stated that the Boston Red Sox would take the World Series from the St. Louis Cardinals in six games. After yesterday's televised contest the Cards sit on a 3-1 margin, with a chance to end it all this afternoon in Busch Memorial Stadium. They have to face Boston's Jim Lonborg, though, which changes the complexion of the affair. Nevertheless, it appears now that Harry Caray will lose his voice before the week is out.

Green Bay Rallies to Whip Detroit

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Vince Lombardi ignored the panic button and the Green Bay Packers scrambled back to daylight.

John Brodie flipped the safety switch and the Los Angeles Rams stumbled in the dark.

The Packers spotted Detroit a 10-0 first-quarter lead Sunday, then rallied for a 27-17 victory that kept them atop the National Football League's Central Division with a 3-0-1 mark.

Brodie, meanwhile, tossed a 28-yard scoring pass to Sonny Randle in the fourth period that gave the San Francisco 49ers a 27-24 triumph over the previously-unbeaten Rams.

Baltimore kept its perfect record intact with a 24-3 victory over Chicago, Dallas edged Washington 17-14 on a last-minute TD pitch by Don Meredith, Philadelphia mauled Atlanta 38-7 and New York downed New Orleans 27-21 in other Sunday games. Cleveland trimmed Pittsburgh 21-10 Saturday night.

In American Football League action, Kansas City buried Miami 41-0, Buffalo bottled Denver 17-16 and San Diego nipped Boston to a 31-31 standoff. New York flattened Oakland 27-24 in a Saturday night AFL game.

The Packers, who had to come from 17 points down three weeks ago to earn a 17-17 tie with Detroit in their season opener, won the return match with a 17-point binge in the final period.

"One thing you learn in this league is not to panic," said Lombardi, the Packers' tough-minded general manager-coach. "If you start making drastic adjustments because you're down a few points...you're in trouble."

Brodie drove the 49ers 69 yards for their winning touchdown at Los Angeles after the Rams had erased a 20-0 halftime deficit to go four points up.

The 49ers, crushed by Baltimore 41-7 a week ago, handed the Rams their first setback in four starts after blowing the first-half bulge in a span of just over 10 minutes in the third period.

Brodie also fired touchdown bombs of 59 and 55 yards to John David Crow and Bob Windsor.

The Colts broke open a defensive struggle at Chicago when rookie Rich Volk raced 97 yards with an intercepted pass and Orrell Braase rumbled nine yards with a recovered fumble for two fourth-quarter touchdowns. The victory gave Baltimore a one-game lead over Los Angeles in the Coastal Division.

Meredith's 36-yard scoring strike to Dan Reeves with 18 seconds remaining lifted the Cowboys past Washington for their third victory against one loss. One minute earlier, the Redskins had taken a 14-10 lead on Sonny Jurgensen's eight-yard TD pass to Charlie Taylor.

Chill Air for Fans at Fifth Game

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Considerable cloudiness and chilly temperatures were forecast for today's crucial fifth game of the World Series. However, the weatherman took some of the sharp edge off the gloomy prediction with "some sunshine possible" and little chance of rain.

The St. Louis Cardinals blanked the Boston Red Sox, 6-0, Sunday to run up a 3-1 lead in the best-of-seven Series. A St. Louis victory today would end the Series. Right-hander Jim Lonborg, a 22-game winner who pitched a one-hitter in the second game, which the Red Sox won, 5-0, in Boston, will start for the visitors. Card Manager Red Schoendienst assigned left-hander Steve Carlton, who had a 14-9 record in season play, to start for St. Louis. Red Sox Manager Dick Williams said if his team won today, Gary Waslewski would start the sixth game in Boston. Schoendienst was considering either Dick Hughes, the second-game loser, or Nelson Briles, winner of game No. 3 in St. Louis.

Arkansas State Loses to Citadel

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Citadel ruined Arkansas State University's Central Arkansas debut Saturday night, putting down the Indians 20-7 in War Memorial Stadium. It was ASU's first loss in 18 tries against non-conference opponents. The victory was the hard straight for the Bulldogs following an openwio the Indians' 26 to set up the Bulldogs' first score. Junior quarterback Jay Goolsby passed 23 yards to flanker Gene Hightower for the first touchdown with 1:37 left in the first quarter. Jim Gahagan kicked the first of two conversions. ASU reached the Bulldogs' eight in the second period but surrendered the ball on downs. Isaac returned a punt 24 yards to the Bulldogs' 44 and The Citadel took a 6-0 lead. Sophomore Tony Passander passed eight yards to Mark Cassidy for the touchdown with 1:19 left in the half. The Bulldogs recovered an ASU fumble at the ASU 30 in the third quarter and moved in for their third score. Passander rolled out and kept the ball for the last five yards. His touchdown made it 20-0 with 14:18 left in the game. ASU's freshman quarterback Cecil Lagrone guided the Tribe to its only touchdown. Lagrone was playing in place of senior Tim Keane, who was injured in the second period. Lagrone moved the Indians 66 yards for the touchdown, going the last two himself with 7:57 to play. Texas Tech No Longer on Cloud Nine

By JACK DONOVAN Associated Press Sports Writer J T King was a merry old soul, And a merry old soul was he. He called for a pass And he called for a run, But Tech lost 7 to 3.

Cloud nine has disappeared over the South Plains of Texas and Texas Tech has rejoined the Southwest Conference. The Red Raiders, who only a week ago looked to be in a class by themselves after upsetting Texas, were looking somewhere else last Saturday night. Mississippi State slipped into Lubbock with the distinction of having scored only one touchdown in two losing games while giving up 54 points and flew away on Tech's pink cloud with a 7-3 victory. State doubled its season point production on the first play of the second quarter, then held unbeaten Tech, 10th ranked in The Associated Press poll last week, to 87 yards rushing and 110 passing. A fourth quarter field goal of 43 yards by Ken Vinyard averted a shutout. While Tech proposed membership in the conference's Blue Monday Society, Texas and Arkansas began to see some silver in the dark clouds that had engulfed the first two weeks of SMU 20-17 Sept. 16,

ROPE (ARK) STAR, Printed by Offset their football seasons. The Longhorns and Razorbacks started one-game winning streaks by whipping Oklahoma State 19-0 and Texas Christian 26-0, respectively. It was Texas Coach Darrell Royal's 100th career victory and gave rise to new hopes as the Longhorns prepare for Saturday's Cotton Bowl meeting with undefeated Oklahoma in Dallas, Arkansas, which received a veteran's performance out of sophomore quarterback John Eichler, who had his first starting role, joined Southern Methodist and Tech as one-game winners in the conference race. Eichler, who was favored by Coach Frank Broyles after red-shirt senior Ronny South directed two losing causes, responded with 112 yards rushing, including a 76-yard touchdown run, and 110 yards passing on six completions. The Razorbacks go to Waco Saturday night for an engagement with Baylor, which also ended a two-game losing streak last week by edging Washington State 10-7 for only the fourth non-conference triumph of the year for the Southwest Conference. It will be the Bears' first conference start. Florida State, with an inglorious season record of two defeats and one tie, heaped more abuse on winless Texas A&M by converting a fourth quarter fumble on the Aggie 27 into the winning touchdown 19-18. The Aggies, with four consecutive losses, meet Texas Tech at Lubbock Saturday night. It will be the second conference game for both teams. A&M lost to SMU 20-17 Sept. 16,

Eichler Guy Who Makes Things Move

By HARRY KING Associated Press Writer LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles was discussing quarterback John Eichler's appearance in the Razorbacks' first two teams. "When he came into both games things just seemed to happen," Broyles said. Eichler certainly made things happen Saturday in his first starting assignment. The 195-pound sophomore from Stuttgart guided the Razorbacks on touchdown drives of 56 and 57 yards and raced 76 yards on a quarterback sneak as the Porkers defeated TCU 26-0 for their first victory of the year. "It was beyond our fondest dreams that he would have that kind of day," Broyles said. "He used good judgment all day. He's intelligent and he's got a lot on the ball." Eichler gained 112 yards rushing on 15 carries and hit on six of nine passes for another 110 yards. Eichler, the first sophomore to start at quarterback for the Razorbacks against TCU since 1954, averaged 9.2 yards every time he handled the ball. He, and the Razorbacks' swarming defense, gave Arkansas field position in the first quarter even though the Porkers were going into the wind. The Porkers, with the aid of a roughing the kicker penalty, moved the ball from their own 20 to the TCU 21 before running out of downs. TCU put together two first downs and then noseman David Cooper recovered a TCU fumble on a fourth down situation at the Arkansas 44. Eichler moved the Porkers 56 yards in 10 plays for the touchdown. He accounted for 46 of the 56 yards, hitting on two of three passes for 33 yards and carrying three times for 13 more. David Dickey, who was used as a split receiver, wingback and tailback, scored the first of his two touchdowns from the one. The Razorbacks went 57 yards in 11 plays on their next possession. The big play was a 27-yard pass from Eichler to tight end Mike Sigman who made a brilliant catch. He was knocked down at the TCU 24 and the Porkers went the distance on the ground. Dickey scored from the two behind Jim Barnes and Ernest Ruple. Broyles had enough confidence in his defense to call three straight timeouts in the final 1:35 and force TCU to punt from its own 17. Gary Adams returned the punt 15 yards and on first down Eichler passed 25 yards to Dickey. One play later Bob White boomed a 37-yard field goal for a 17-0 halftime lead. "Our defense did a tremendous job of keeping field position for us time after time."

tract of three diamonds. West opened the ace of spades and continued. South decided that West was underleading the king and rose with dummy's queen. This took away all chance to get rid of his losing club. Then South led a heart to dummy's jack and Garozzo of Italy ducked. The next play was a diamond finesse which lost. Forquet of Italy led his second heart and Garozzo gave him a ruff. Italy still managed to get a club trick and America was down one at the safe contract.

Americans are spending larger portions of their lives in retirement, says The World Almanac. In 1900 a man averaged only three years in retirement. By 1950 the figure had doubled to nearly six, and by the year 2000 it is expected to be nearly nine.

Though population in the United States has grown to nearly 200 million since the 1965 figures above were compiled by the U.S. Bureau of Census, state standings have shown little change from those shown here. California remains the leader in numbers, while Alaska, biggest in size, observes the centennial of its relationship with the United States with the smallest number of residents.

"George Washington and HIS HORSE slept here? Elvin, you're putting me on!"

Tax Battle Another Game — for Keeps

By JOSEPH R. COYNE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — While the Boston Red Sox and St. Louis Cardinals battle in the baseball World Series, two other teams are battling in a more serious game over taxes and spending. The score is now firmly deadlocked.

The team managers are President Johnson and Chairman Wilbur Mills, D-Ark., of the House Ways and Means Committee. Their dugouts are 16 blocks apart—the distance from the Capitol to the White House. The first pitch was tossed Aug. 3 when Johnson proposed a 10 per cent surcharge on individual and corporate income taxes. The administration promised $2 billion in spending cuts from civilian programs.

The ball was pitched back to the White House last week by the Ways and Means Committee. It temporarily shelved the surcharge plan by a 20-5 vote pending an agreement with the administration on spending.

But Johnson whacked the ball right back late in the week, contending it's up to Congress to make cuts in a budget he considers already free from fat.

The administration applied a squeeze play about the same time. The Defense Department froze all new contracts for construction unrelated to the Vietnam war at military bases and on Army Engineer programs—the so-called pork barrel projects of river and harbor development.

The rival managers, through public statements and news conferences, repeatedly spelled out their positions as the week wore on but stuck to their original lineups.

Johnson said he wouldn't yield to congressional demands for big spending cuts as the price of reviving the surcharge. Mills called for an overhaul in spending philosophy, not just now but for the future.

Then Saturday the White House confirmed the President had ordered Wednesday a temporary freeze on all federal spending commitments except for national defense and vital health and welfare programs, pending an end to the budget battle.

But the move was called only a holding action—not any kind of spending cut designed to answer the congressional demand that Johnson strike out some dollar signs.

That's where the ball game stood at week's start with neither side conceding anything.

But on the sidelines, some government economists who insist they know nothing about the ins and outs of politics, said they felt a tax increase would eventually be approved.

"The only question is the timing and the size," one analyst said. "I expect it to be awfully close to what the President wants."

Chairman George Mahon, D-Tex., of the House Appropriations Committee, could hold the key to the deadlock which might make both teams happy.

The signals could have been called not at a baseball game but at a round of golf Mahon played with Johnson two weeks ago, the President's first golfing in some time.

Mahon plans to scrutinize anew all appropriation bills in hopes of trimming more money. It's expected to bring postponements and deferrals of spending.

If that fails to satisfy the Mills' team, the tie could be broken later this month when the temporary spending authority of most government departments expires unless their appropriations bills are adopted.

Republicans, who earlier failed to tack a blanket ceiling on spending, are expected to try again at that time.

Meantime, some of the pro-administration fans expect Johnson to marshal his team quietly and win the day as he did so frequently in earlier political battles.

James Marlow, who usually writes this column, is on vacation.

Tommy Manville, Playboy, Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Tommy Manville, playboy of the Roaring 20's and Depression 30's whose marriages and monetary settlements made headlines for almost five decades, died Sunday of a heart attack. He was 73.

With him at the end was his 11th and last wife, the former Christina Erdien, 26, at their Westchester County residence in Chappaqua, some 30 miles north of Manhattan.

Manville took his first wife, a chorus girl, in 1911 when he was 17, and his last in 1960. He remarried twice, was divorced 10 times, and widowed once. He was heir to a $10 million asbestos fortune, and his divorce settlements cost him in the neighborhood of $1.5 million.

"Marrying Manville" was no misnomer for the son of the founder and chairman of the Johns-Manville Corp. He had a decided, and oft-announced, penchant for showgirls, squiring dozens and marrying five of them.

Manville, during his hectic nightclubbing and pursuit of beautiful women, once said, "I'm too lonely—I just can't live alone. . . . The first thing I say to a girl is 'Will you marry me' and the second thing is 'How do you do?'"

As for his settlements, the tireless man-about-town remarked, "Manville is not cheap. At least I keep my money in circulation."

He spent other millions maintaining what he called his "honeymoon cottage," a luxurious estate in New Rochelle called Bon Repos—Good Rest. He sold it in 1955.

He often said that, in addition to the millions his father left him, he had, "Johns-Manville," and added:

"That's where I got most of my dough."

Manville's only known job followed his first marriage—to showgirl Florence Huber under a Broadway marquee.

The bridegroom's father, then traveling in Europe, shut the family exchequer against him and said he would have the marriage annulled when he returned home. Manville arranged a second wedding in New Jersey.

U.S. Envoy Is Ousted by Ecuador

By JORGE JURADO
Associated Press Writer
QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Wymberley DeR. Coerr prepared to leave Ecuador today after the Ecuadorian government requested his withdrawal for what it called "publicly and openly criticizing" President Otto Arosemena Gomez.

Ecuador's complaint was over a speech in which Coerr, 54, defended the Alliance for Progress and called it a success in Ecuador. Arosemena had criticized the American program in a speech.

"The Ecuadorian government saw itself forced to ask for his withdrawal to protect the national dignity and demand the respect due by a foreign envoy to the chief of state," a Foreign Office statement said.

Coerr, a career minister and member of the Foreign Service since 1939, spoke Friday at the American School in Guayaquil. Ecuador asked Washington Saturday to have him out of the country by tonight.

The U.S. State Department said that under traditional diplomatic practice its only possible response is withdrawal of the ambassador. It considers Ecuador's request "to be unjustified by the circumstances" but added that it sees no reason to ask Ecuador's ambassador to withdraw in retaliation.

Coerr's speech did not name the Ecuadorian president but it did quote a number of remarks made by Arosemena as published in Ecuador's newspapers.

Arosemena had complained about high interest rates for loans, high costs for materials that had to be bought in the United States and the cost of the services of U.S. technicians under the Alliance for Progress.

In his speech, Coerr said interest rates were one per cent in the first year and 2.5 per cent thereafter. He said that of the total of $216 million in alliance loans to Ecuador, only $26.5 million had to be spent in the U.S. and only half of one percent was needed to pay U.S. technicians.

No Color Yet in Ozarks' Foilage; Bird Not Mine

Among those attending the Razorback - TCU game in Fayetteville Saturday were Paul A. Lewis, L. Carter Johnson, and Charles Walker. Before they left town I had asked Johnson to check on whether our one state-wide scattered frost had turned any of the Ozark foliage into Autumn hues—but he reported back today, "It's as green in the Ozarks as it is here."

It's getting to be an annual affair with this writer—checking with Eureka Springs for the best time to go up there and make color photographs. But the time is not yet.

The Hope threesome saw the Fayetteville game and then drove over to the Crescent Hotel at Eureka Springs to spend the night. I'm familiar with the place.

As a matter of fact our next process color production for The Star, probably this week, will be a Kodachrome of a rail fence in a scarlet woods on the grounds of the hotel property. I shot it with a 35mm. camera in October 1955, then went back to the exact spot in October 1956 and rephotographed it in Ektachrome with a 4x5 Speed Graphic Camera. But the color is always different from year to year, and the 35mm. Kodachrome was the best, so we're using that one.

I got some telephone calls Saturday asking whether a Mallard duck captured on the football field Friday was one of mine. But before I could count mine—I should have 13—the report was corrected to read "a small wild goose." That let me out. My Canadian Honkers are big and the number is two—and both are O.K.

The geese are bone-clipped, or they'd leave town twice a year. But Mallards grow fat and lazy and don't need clipping. You couldn't run 'em off from a place where they had water and corn and a good fence.

I understand the goose-finder turned it over to the FAA club as a pet, the details appearing, I believe, in our staffers' Around the Town column today.

Innocent of Stealing Gate

INDIO, Calif. (AP) — A. U. "Benny" Campest, a 35-year-old Palm Springs construction worker, has been found innocent of stealing a 4,500-pound set of iron gates from the desert estate of composer Frederick Loewe.

Loewe wrote the music for the Broadway musicals "My Fair Lady," "Camelot," and "Brigadoon."

Damage Claim Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court held today that the city of Springdale must pay a couple $7,000 for building a sewer line across their land.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ketcher, who live near Springdale, had sought $20,000 for damages and $10,000 for odor caused by a sewage disposal system built adjacent to their land three years ago.

A jury trial awarded the Ketchers a $7,000 judgment. The city contended no substantial evidence existed on which to base the award and that incompetent testimony was admitted in evidence.

Associate Justice Paul Ward, writing the opinion for the four-member majority, said there was substantial evidence for the $7,000 judgment.

In another case, the court reversed a three-year prison sentence given Calvin Davis for the $100 robbery of a Little Rock liquor store Feb. 14, 1956.

The court sent the case back to Pulaski Circuit Court for retrial.

Associate Justice George Rose Smith said an admission made by Davis was plainly inadmissible under the U.S. Supreme Court's Miranda ruling.

Davis' companion at the time of the robbery had exonerated Davis of any complicity and that he alone committed the robbery while Davis waited in the truck and that Davis knew nothing about it.

Ford Strike Heads for Auto Record

By A.H. MAHAN
Associated Press Writer

DETROIT (AP) — Armed with a dues increase that will pump $20 million a month into his union's strike fund, United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther says the 34-day-old strike against Ford Motor Co. could stretch into the industry's longest.

The longest automotive strike lasted 119 days in 1945-46 and was called against General Motors Corp., by the UAW to support wage demands.

It was UAW wage and fringe demands in the new contract which triggered the strike at Ford.

A special UAW convention Sunday voted in emergency increase in dues from $5 to $25 monthly for most of its 1.4 million members.

Reuther returns to the bargaining table with Ford today in search of a new contract he hopes to carry later to GM and Chrysler for matching or bettering.

More than 2,400 convention delegates cheered when told the emergency increase was needed to win at Ford and "possible strikes at Chrysler, General Motors and other large companies." They passed the dues increase overwhelmingly.

Asked at a post-convention news conference if the strike fund was being beefed up to support a General Motors strike later, Reuther replied: "It's not directed against any specific corporation, but it could include GM."

Reuther also told the news conference that "if there is no significant change in the company's attitude in the next week or ten days, Ford Motor Co. will have made a policy decision to force a long strike."

3 Rapists Sought on Murder Count

SANTA ROSA, Calif. (AP) — Three young killer-rapists are being sought as police retrace activities of a 19-year-old college student and his newly met companion before his slaying.

Charles Louis Kaufmann Jr., a Santa Rosa Junior College freshman from Alexandria, Va., was shot from behind three times early Saturday—once in the head and once in each shoulder. His companion, an 18-year-old girl estranged from her husband, was forced from her car parked on a lover's lane just before Kaufmann was killed and then driven to a nearby area where, she told police, she was repeatedly raped.

Kaufmann was the son of Charles L. Kaufmann, an officer of the U.S. Agency for International Development (AID) now stationed in Washington. The parents flew here Sunday to claim the body.

Police Chief Melvin Flohr said the girl questioned Saturday and Sunday has retold her story with no significant changes and was unable to provide additional clues.

He said the young man first met the girl, whose name was withheld, at a party Friday night. They drove to Proctor Heights, a fashionable area about 1 1/2 miles from downtown.

The girl told police they had been parked about an hour when another car drove up. Two men from it approached, one on each side of the car. As one brandished a gun, the couple was ordered out.

She said her sweater was pulled over her head and was forced into the rear seat of the other car.

Flohr said the girl told of hearing scuffling noises and then three shots.

Man Held in Twin Slaying at New York

NEW YORK (AP) — A 26-year-old laborer was charged today with the murders of the teen-age daughter of a wealthy Greenwich, Conn., family and a young man, whose nude bodies were found in a hippie land tenement Sunday after an LSD party, police said.

Donald Ramsey, who lives in the building, was arrested and charged with killing the couple in the boiler room of the tenement.

Police said their questioning of guests at the party had led them to Ramsey.

Also arrested was the man who found the bodies, Freddie Wright, assistant superintendent of the five-story building. He was charged with rape and robbery, police said, after 23-year-old woman at the party, also being questioned, said he had attacked her and stolen $3 following the party.

The bodies of the slain couple, the man tattooed and long-haired, were found face down on a concrete floor. Their heads had been battered and blood stains were on the floor and walls.

The girl was identified by a step-sister as Linda Fitzpatrick, 18, daughter of Irving Fitzpatrick, president of the Knickerbocker Mills, a tea and spice import firm at Totowa, N.J. Her home was a 30-room mansion.

Girl Saves Child From Drowning

SOUTH BAY, Fla. (AP) — A teen-aged girl plunged into the waters of a 25-foot deep canal Sunday and rescued a 3-year-old girl from a sinking car that carried the child's mother and grandparents to their deaths.

The rescuer, Paula Scoggins, 14, of Miami, said a woman handed the baby out of the window of the car and cried, "Save her! We can't swim!" as the car sank to the bottom of the murky water.

Miss Scoggins swam to the bank, about 15 yards away, handed blonde Laura Ann Schick to her boyfriend and swam back to try and save the other occupants.

"The car was gone," said state Trooper J.L. McLean. The doors were still closed when the car and its three occupants were recovered, McLean said. The rear doors were still locked, he said.

Miss Scoggins, a junior high school student, said she was traveling along the highway when she saw the car suddenly veer off an isolated section of U.S. 27 and plunge into the canal at a 45-degree angle. The victims were identified as the child's grandparents.

Chicago Gets Democratic Convention

By JACK BELL
AP Political Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Western Democrats moved today to write into their 1968 Chicago convention rules a loyalty oath pledging delegates to support the party presidential nominee.

Aimed primarily at Vietnam war critics—some of whom want to dump President Johnson—the proposed pledge also would affect civil rights dissenters in the South.

California National Committeeman Eugene L. Wyman said representatives of 13 Western states, meeting in advance of the National Committee's formal ratification of the choice of Chicago for the convention site, voted unanimously to back a loyalty oath under which individual delegates would have to give their word that they would support the ticket in the general election.

This would involve a stronger pledge than previous compromises under which delegations were required to work to get the party nominees' names on the ballot in their states.

Wyman said in an interview he intends to lay this proposal before a special equal rights committee headed by Gov. Richard Hughes, of New Jersey.

The party's national committee scheduled speedy acceptance of the proposal.

Jet Lands Safely With 40 Persons

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — A jet airliner carrying 40 persons from Spain to Cuba made a safe emergency landing in San Juan, P.R., Sunday after losing one of its engines over the Atlantic Ocean, the Coast Guard said.

No one was reported injured on the DC-8, an Iberian Airlines flight from Madrid to Havana.

Apple Tree Which Produced a Second Crop of 12 Apples a Few Days Ago

At the football game Friday night in Hammons Stadium, a small goose was flying low and got blinded by the lights. Landing at the south end of the stadium, the goose was captured by Taj McCain and Tal turned it over to the Hope FFA club.

There will be a Garage and Patio Sale at Frieda Greenan's home all day Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 10 a.m. Part of the proceeds will go to the Hope Junior Auxiliary. Many items to sell too numerous to move to Phoenix, will be for sale.

Whitfield Masonic Lodge No. 239 will have a fish fry at the Masonic Hall Tuesday, October 10 at 7 p.m. Each Mason is reminded, "Don't forget your ticket."

At the B&PW Club meeting Thursday night at 7 at the Diamond, Alice Kate Baker (Mrs. Ervin), will have her sister, Mrs. Frank C. Malone, as the guest speaker. With her husband, Col. Malone, she had traveled throughout the world and has lived in many countries. Appropriately, the program topic for the evening is "World Affairs," and the speaker will show slides to illustrate her talk.

Court Upholds Top-to-Bottom Integration

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to review a historic decision by the U.S. Circuit Court in New Orleans calling for top-to-bottom integration of all public school systems in six southern states.

The high court gave no explanation in announcing that it would not hear appeals from the March 29 decision filed in behalf of six Louisiana and three Alabama school boards. This means the decision is left standing—and serves to give it added weight as a precedent for courts elsewhere.

Justice Thurgood Marshall did not participate in the case. Rejection of the appeals was urged by the Justice Department and by attorneys for Negro pupils whose litigation led to the Circuit Court ruling.

In its decision the circuit court required integration of classrooms, faculties, facilities and activities in all public school systems in Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi and Texas from kindergarten up.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to reconsider its June 12 decision upholding a $460,000 libel judgment won by Wallace Butts, former athletic director at the University of Georgia, against the Curtis Publishing Co.

The court made no comment in turning down a plea by attorneys for the publishing firm for a new hearing.

The award, upheld by a 5-4 vote, was based on a March 23, 1963, article in The Saturday Evening Post, titled "The Story of a Football Fix," it said Butts outlined Georgia's plays to Paul (Bear) Bryant, Alabama football coach, eight days before the 1962 Georgia-Alabama game. Alabama won 35-0.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to review a Pennsylvania law that requires transportation in public school buses of pupils attending nonprofit parochial and private schools.

The court announced in a brief unsigned opinion that it had dismissed an appeal asking it to examine the law, "for want of a substantial federal question."

Justice William O. Douglas alone noted that he favored hearing the case.

Thus, the Court left standing a ruling by the Pennsylvania Supreme Court in January 1967 that the 1955 law is unconstitutional.

Review of that decision was requested by four Montgomery County taxpayers and by a Delaware County taxpayer. They claimed the law violates the separation of church and state provided by the 1st Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether chronic alcoholics can be punished for public drunkenness.

Set for argument and decision later this term was an appeal from Texas backed by the American Civil Liberties Union. It contended that conviction of chronic alcoholics for being drunk in a public place is a form of cruel and unusual punishment barred by the 8th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

Last year the court refused to rule on the subject in a California case. Two U.S. circuit courts—in Richmond, Va., and the District of Columbia—have held that chronic alcoholics cannot be convicted of public drunkenness.

In the Texas case, Leroy Powell, who works in an Austin tavern shining shoes for an average of $12 a week, appealed his December 1966 conviction and $50 fine. The appeal described Powell, 67, as an alcoholic who would like to be medically treated but is without sufficient money to seek such help.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to reexamine the contempt of court convictions of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and seven other Negro ministers.
